Just got an update. Codes haven't gone out yet. They were trying to see if we could give people unique logins, but that may delay implementation, so they're going to start with a universal login/pass. You should probably get an email from Brian about it sometime later today or tomorrow.

Thank you. I did not realize that it was not up and running. I am sure Brian has been busy seeing to that.

Hi Lisa,

Brian Cooper was the right person to contact. I believe the plan is for the website to go live today (or maybe tomorrow). I don't think the url/login have been distributed yet. Let me know if he doesn't get back to you later today, and I'll reach out to him as well. Sorry for the inconvenience.

Best,

Leo

Subject: Log In Information

Hi Leo,

I was not able to remotely connect to the training session on the website. I e-mailed Brian Cooper and asked for guidance on how to get a log-in and where to go to get on the website but I have not heard back from him. Can you tell me what I need to do to get access to the website?

Thanks in advance. I know you are busy. If you can just direct me to the right person it would be appreciated.

Lisa
